The Gary Brooker Ensemble

with the Chameleon Arts Choir & Strings

A Whiter Shade Of Pale maestro announces exciting new project!

Gary Brooker MBE is renowned across the world as the mesmerising singer, pianist and principal composer in Procol Harum, the legendary British band he has led since their chart-topping début in 1967 with 'A Whiter Shade of Pale'.

THE GARY BROOKER ENSEMBLE is an exciting new project and one more musical string to Brooker's multi-talented bow. Featuring the talents of Andy Fairweather-Low, Henry Spinetti, Frank Mead and Matt Pegg plus The Chameleon Arts Choir & Strings, the Ensemble will perform some of the more spiritually-charged Procol Harum songs, plus a selection of classical and gospel works - and some Elvis!

With strong media interest already and record company support, The Gary Brooker Ensemble will initially play selected dates throughout the UK & Europe to promote the CD 'Within Our House'.

PROMOTIONAL DVD available with exclusive Gary Brooker performance of the Procol Harum classic 'A Salty Dog'
